

Genzyme Corporation
is pleased to congratulate the winners of the 2009 Gaucher Generation grants for investigator-initiated research...

Reprogramming cultured Gaucher fibroblasts to induced pluripotent stem cells and neuronal cells using the piggyBac transposon/transposase system

Principal Investigator: — Francis Choy, Ph.D.

Institution: — Centre for Biomedical Research, University of Victoria
Victoria, Canada

Mechanisms of osteopenia in Gaucher disease and its treatment in a new conditional KO mouse model of type 1 Gaucher disease

Principal Investigator: — Pramod K. Mistry, M.D., Ph.D., FRCP

Institution: — Yale University School of Medicine
New Haven, CT, USA

gaucher
generationsm
program

Applications for 2010 grants will be accepted beginning in February, 2010.

Please visit www.gauchergeneration.com for more information.

Genzyme Corporation
500 Kendall Street
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02142
Tel 617.252.7500
Fax 617.252.7600
www.genzyme.com